

Parish Weekly Update

Fr. Jason Johnston

Vacation Bible School

Vacation Bible School was a great success. Thanks to Deacon Jeff, his wife Jennifer, and everyone who made it such a great week for the kids. There were many hands at work and if I try to name everyone, I know I'll miss somebody. Thanks to all of you for assisting in this very important ministry to our children.

House at the Lakes

Today, we are closing on the house at the Lakes at 15 Middleton Court. The final offer was $170,000. Of course we'll be paying some fees. The buyer is Crabtree Properties, LLC.

Welcome to our new Director of Campus Ministry

Meg Kanatzar has started work this week and she is getting her feet on the ground. Next week, she and I will travel to Seton Hall University for a conference for new campus ministers hosted by The Catholic Campus Ministry Association.

Food Pantry

The Food Pantry distribution's tomorrow at 9 AM. Thanks to all of you who are able to help.

Lights in the Parish Center

Work has begun in the Parish Center in replacing the lights. We hope to see that project completed very soon.

Farewell

After 8-1/2 years of service to St. Joseph, our Office Manager, Demi Dunne will leave us at the end of next week. We are very grateful to her and for the many ways she has brought smiles to the faces that have walked in to the parish office, We thank her especially for the ministry she has offered to so many in the parish. Demi has a special place in her heart for helping those who come in their time of need. Thank you for all you have done for us, we will miss you, and we wish you all the best in the future.

We are now looking for an Office Manager. If you or someone you know is interested, please send your resume to frjason@stjosephstarkville.org.

Peace,
Fr. Jason
